

As the lock-down on the country continues, Norfolk Constabulary's Chief Constable urges residents of Norfolk to "ensure that we as a county are doing our best to protect the NHS and to save lives" in his latest video message.

Watch the video here > <https://www.norfolk.police.uk/news/latest-news/08-04-2020/covid19-chief-urges-norfolk-help-save-lives>

Norfolk police received 160 calls from members of the public reporting people ignoring the guidelines on Saturday 4 April and a further 198 calls on Sunday 5 April.

As we head into the Easter Bank Holiday weekend, traditionally a time for spending time with family or friends, Mr Bailey hoped that those 'who chose to flout the guidelines and ignored the advice will reflect on the number of cases that we have in the county' and instead will 'respect the rationale for the guidelines' that are in place to protect the NHS and help save lives.

#StayHomeSaveLives #HelpUsHelpYou