

The following is a Police Connect message.

Police are appealing for witnesses to an assault in Fakenham over the weekend. It happened shortly after midnight on Sunday 17 March 2019, when the victims, a woman and man aged in their 20s, were assaulted in the Market Place outside the Crown pub.

As a result both victims required medical attention for facial injuries.

A woman, aged in her 30s, was arrested in connection with the incident and taken to Aylsham Police Investigation Centre for questioning. She's subsequently been released under investigation pending further enquiries.

Officers are keen to speak to any witnesses or anyone who has any information concerning the incident. They're asked to contact PC Adam Hussey at Fakenham Police Station on 101 quoting reference 36/17954/19.

Alternatively contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.
