

The following is a Police Connect message.

Two men have been arrested in connection with theft offences in the North Norfolk area.

It's after a Volkswagen Polo car was broken into on The Street in Wiveton sometime between 11.15am and 12.30pm yesterday (Tuesday 12 March). Suspect(s) have forced access to the vehicle by smashing a window and have stolen a boot bag, which was later recovered.

A second car, a Citroen C3 which was parked in Kelling Heath car park, was broken into sometime between 12.15pm and 3pm yesterday. A rear window has been smashed; however no items have been stolen.

Two men, one aged in his 30s and one in his 40s, have been arrested on suspicion of theft and have been taken to Aylsham Police Investigation Centre, where they remain in custody for questioning.
